MOULTON, TEXAS.

Montgomery, the photographer, F. T. Fehrenkamp had a house warming Sunday night and invited in his friends to have a social good time. A large crowd was in attendance and were treated to a splendid supper at ten o'clock.
Dancing continued until morning.
Music was furnished by Rudolph Vogt. The occasion was one long to be remembered. More than one hundred and fifty people were present and all united in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Fehrenkamp a long and happy life.

The Shiner robbers are supposed to have been the same who robbed J. J. Gallia at Engle Monday night.
Mr. Ed Boehm received a letter from there Tuesday stating that the safe had been blown open and warning him to be on guard as the robbers were on horses and coming this way. Mr. Boehm guarded his
